* Under Order in Council of the 7th January, 1915, Engineer Officers form part of the Military Branch. The Order in Council provides that they shall not be eligible to take command of His Majesty's Ships, and that in all details relating to the duties of the Fleet and to the discipline and interior economy of His Majesty's Ships they shall be subject to the authority of any Officer who may be in charge of the Executive duties of the Ship, or acting as Officer of the Watch, or specially detailed for the charge of any other special service or duty, of whatever seniority such Officer may be.

5. All Officers of the same denomination in the Military Branch shall rank and command according to the order in which their names stand in the Official List of Officers of the Royal Navy ; or, when not inserted in the List, according to the dates of their first Commissions, Warrants, or Orders, in their existing rank. If only acting in the rank, they shall rank and command after Officers holding the corresponding confirmed rank, and in relation to each other shall rank and command according to the order in which their names stand in the Official List of the Officers of the Royal Navy unless the Admiralty may otherwise direct.

6. Officers of the Non-Military Branches shall rank with each other and with the Officers of the Military Branch, the Royal Marines, and the Army in the order given in the following table, and shall command in the same order the Officers and men of their own Branch as well as those of any other Branch or of the Royal Marines who may be appointed or detailed for duty in their respective departments or placed under their orders by superior authority.

7. Officers on whom a step of temporary or local rank has been conferred under the provisions of Order in Council of 21st November, 1855, shall, subject to the provisions of Clauses 5 and 6, be entitled to take command and precedence, and to enjoy all the privileges and emoluments of the rank in which they are acting.

8. Officers in command of His Majesty's Ships must take rank and precedence of Officers placed under their Command on all occasions, whether on shore or afloat.

9. When Commanders, Lieutenant-Commanders, Lieutenants, or Sub-Lieutenants who are seniors to the Executive Officer are appointed for Navigating duties, they will succeed to the command of the Ship, in the absence of the Captain ; but they are not to take upon themselves the routine duties of the Executive Officer except by order of the Captain, or in case of necessity.

10. All Officers of the Military Branch are liable to be called upon to perform Navigating and Pilotage duties in His Majesty's Ships, but the additional pay to Commanders, Lieutenant-Commanders, Lieutenants, and Sub-Lieutenants for the discharge of such duties is contingent on their having passed the necessary examination in Pilotage.

11. Lieutenant-Commanders, Lieutenants, and Sub-Lieutenants appointed for Navigating duties are to take a share in the ordinary duties of their ships, such as watch keeping, acting as Divisional Officers, &c., but this participation in the ordinary duties is not to interfere with their special navigating duties, and is to be arranged at the discretion of the Captain.

12. At Courts of Inquiry, Surveys, and other similar assemblages of Officers the Officer who, in virtue of his office, would, under these Regulations, take the Military Command, is in all cases to preside, irrespective of the relative rank of the other members, whose precedence on such occasions shall be determined by the table given on pages 70 and 71.

13. Officers of the Royal Australian Navy shall rank and command with officers of the Royal Navy according to their rank and seniority in the Royal Australian Navy.

14. The Auxiliary Services of the Permanent Naval Forces will consist of—

- (a) The Royal Australian Naval Brigade Staff ;
- (b) The Royal Australian Naval Radio Service ;
- (c) Members appointed for other special service on shore.

15. Officers who have reached the age for retirement from the Sea-going Forces, or who voluntarily retire from active service at sea, also officers and petty officers who may be physically unfit for sea-going service provided the degree of their unfitness is not incompatible with service on shore, will be eligible by selection for appointment to the Auxiliary Services of the Permanent Naval Forces.

16. Promotion in the Auxiliary Services will not be dependent on officers possessing the qualifications prescribed for Sea-going Officers, but such promotion will be held, so far as relations with the Sea-going Force is concerned, to be an honorary promotion, and officers of the Auxiliary Services will rank with the officers of the Sea-going Force according to the rank they last held on the Sea-going List. They will, nevertheless, have and hold the full authority of their rank in the Auxiliary Services in dealing with officers and men of that Service while holding an appointment for duty in connexion therewith.

17. In the presence of officers on the Active List of the Royal Navy and Sea-going Officers of the Royal Australian Navy, officers of the Auxiliary Services, while holding such appointment, will be entitled, in matters of ceremony, to the rank they hold in the Auxiliary Services, but in their relations with the Sea-going Force they shall only exercise executive command by virtue of the rank they last held on the Sea-going List.

18. Officers of the Auxiliary Services are only eligible to sit on Courts martial by virtue of the rank they last held in the Sea-going Force and their seniority in that rank. They are not eligible to sit unless they and the ship on whose books they are borne are present at the place where the Court martial is held.

19. District Naval Officers shall not be summoned to sit on Courts martial unless specially directed by orders from the Naval Board.

20. Officers of the Sea-going Force may, from time to time, hold appointments in the Auxiliary Services, but these appointments will be of a temporary nature, and such officers will be considered as being always eligible for sea-going appointments so long as they remain on the Sea-going List.

RELATIVE RANK.

RELATIVE RANK OF THE OFFICERS OF THE NAVY AND ARMY.

EXTRACT FROM THE KING'S REGULATIONS.

The relative rank of Officers of the Navy with each other and with Officers of the Army shall, subject to the exceptions provided for in Chapter III. of the King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions, be as laid down in the following table, and shall in every case take effect according to the dates of their respective commissions or appointments, unless the relative rank is granted at the discretion of the Admiralty, or is dependent on the attainment of seniority or completion of service. In the latter case, it shall take effect from such attainment of seniority or completion of service in the particular rank.

(For table, see pp. 70 and 71.)

Nothing contained in these regulations is to be considered as giving a claim to any Officer of the Navy to assume command of His Majesty's Land Forces on shore, nor to any Officer of the Army to assume command of any of His Majesty's Squadrons or Ships, or of any of the Officers or men thereunto belonging, unless under special authority from the Government of His Majesty.

When Officers of the Navy are employed on shore, on joint service with His Majesty's Land Forces, their relative rank shall carry with it all the precedence and advantages, except command, attaching to the rank with which it corresponds, and shall regulate the choice of quarters, rates of lodging money, servants, forage, fuel, and light, or allowances in their stead.

The precedence of the Naval Commander-in-Chief in the East Indies is regulated by the Royal Warrant of precedence in India.

It is His Majesty's pleasure that the following rules be observed in the Colonies in regard to the precedence of Naval and Military Officers in command of His Majesty's Forces :—

- (a) The Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of the rank of an Admiral, and the Senior Officer in command of the troops, if of the rank of a General, are to have precedence next after the Governor, their own relative rank being determined by the Regulations on that subject. Governors of other Colonies shall rank next after such Naval and Military Officers.
- (b) The Senior Officer in Command of the troops, if of the rank of Colonel or Lieutenant-Colonel, and the Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, if of equivalent rank, are to have precedence next after the Bishop and the Chief Justice, their own relative rank being determined by the regulations on that subject.
- (c) The Officer in command of His Majesty's Naval Forces on the Station, and the Senior Officer in command of the troops, if below the rank of Colonel or Lieut.-Colonel, are to continue to take rank, as has heretofore been the case, next after the Solicitor-General.

Whilst, however, these rules will take effect in every place in which His Majesty's Instructions, communicated through the Secretary of State, avail for the purpose, they will not override the precedence which in a few colonies is conferred upon certain officers, either by law, or by the terms of Letters Patent from the Crown ; which instruments cannot be set aside or altered except by the issue of others having the same form and equal authority.
